

LAWYER IN THE CLASSROOM

Volunteer to give a presentation(s) to area classes

The Baton Rouge Bar Foundation encourages members to make law-related contributions in their own special ways. One excellent way is by volunteering for the “Lawyer in the Classroom” project. By giving classroom presentations, you will help young people cultivate a better understanding and respect for the laws that affect their lives.

Name: _____
Firm/Law School: _____
Address: _____
City: _____ State _____ Zip: _____
Email: _____ Phone: _____

Grade level preference: Elementary School Middle School High School No Preference

Specific topic(s) you would like to present: _____

We also have several law-related programs already in place for your convenience, including:

- Fish Tale - Students follow Tootsie the Goldfish through the court system.
- “My Cousin Vinny” – Excerpts from the movie My Cousin Vinny are used to critique a trial.
- Careers in the Law – Students are introduced to professions within the legal community.
- Teen Dating Violence Prevention - Facts, warning signs, and prevention recommendations.

As presentation requests are received, BRBF staff will contact you to determine your availability.

Additional opportunities to share your knowledge with our youth include: Teen Court, Future Legal Eagles Law Club, Summer Youth Legal Institute, High School Mock Trial Competition, Law Day and Junior Partners Academy. Contact the BRBF staff for more information.

Return completed form to: Baton Rouge Bar Foundation, 544 Main Street, Baton Rouge, LA 70801; email to donna@brba.org or fax to 225-344-4805. Questions? Call Donna at 225-214-5556.